

1-3. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

b. Agency responsibility. The Office of Personnel, Office of the Secretary, must approve single-agency medical standards for positions for which the Department is the predominant employer. In addition, requests to the Office of Personnel Management for approval of medical standards for positions for which the Department is not the predominant employer must be transmitted through the Office of Personnel.